OUR PROTESTANT QUEYRAS HERITAGE

Protection & radiance

Our aims is to :

-Bring protestant communities and churches in the Higher Queyras back to life.

-Protect and improve the buildings and places of remembrance.

-Enhance the importance of our heritage.

-Bring to life the significant history of the protestants in the Queyras region.

✓ Restore and celebrated the history of the protestants in Queyras et their huguenots exiled after 1685

-Build future relationships with :

-The Heritage department of the Waldensian Piedmont Evangelical Church

-Local entities such as :

- Retour en Queyras

- Sur les pas des Huguenots et des Vaudois
- Queyracines

- Queyras Passion

-and other entities

✓ Restore the protestant communities and churches in Haut Queyras

- Under the 1901 law the P.P.Q.members wish to support and continue this history with a twofold cultural and religious intention in partnership with the parish of the «Eglise Protestante Unie » of « Freyssinières Briançon Queyras ».

✓ Protect the buildings and places of remembrance

such as the protestant churches of Pierre-Grosse, Saint Véran, Fontgillarde, and the protestant cemetery.

✓ Show the importance of this heritage

- temporary exhibitions, lectures, exchanges, debates and concerts.

- A historical museum.

- Stopover accomodation for the pilgrims walking the « sentier des Huguenots et des Vaudois » (The Huguenot's and Waldensians' route)

Our P.P.Q. association has one ambition : restore the breath of life to the protestant community (including permanent and secondary residents) , Italian Waldensians, European and worldwide protestants looking for their roots. The history of these freedom loving Protestants of the pas twill inspire a rapprochement among these communities, founded in hope and universal brotherhood.
